Elbala

Sponsored By Seniors

of

Elba High School

Elba, Alabama

1963

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1963, proudly dedicate this edition of Elbala to Coach George L. Grider, who has contributed tremendously to the betterment of the athletic and scholastic programs of our school.

ALL SEASON BURSTING WITH EXCITING EVENTS

The Homecoming festivities began on Friday morning when Roylene McDowell was crowned Homecoming Queen by Tony Hudson. Her attendants and their escorts were Therese Fuller and Fred Smith; Charlotte Rushing and Rudolph Free. Roylene reigned throughout the week-end festivities.

The Homecoming Parade was at 1 o'clock. There were four floats representing the grammar school, the E-Club, the cheerleaders, and the parade and float. The queen, Roylene McDowell, and her attendants, Therese Fuller and Fred Smith, were on the float.

The Homecoming game was played by Tony Hudson, performed by the cheerleaders and the flowers to the queen and her court.

The Gym was used for the Homecoming dance through the efforts of the students. The Lead-Out in which the football team and the cheerleaders and their escorts participated. The Lead-Out was highlighted by the presentation of the queen and her court. The dance officially ended at twelve o'clock, but the memories and souvenirs will last much, much longer.

There were many prizes, baby blues, romantic lavenders, and eye-catching Whites. The girls in the top eight were: Margaret Kendrick, Lynda Padgett, Judy Padgett, Roylene McDowell, Jan Dowdy, Sue Hudson, Patricia Ennis, and Jenelle Matthews.

The finalists were: Lynda Padgett, 3rd runner up; Roylene McDowell, 2nd runner up; Jan Dowdy, 1st runner up; and Margaret Kendrick, Winner.
